

PUBLIC SECTOR

The Complete Solution for the Public Sector

Local, state and federal government agencies need to be more efficient to better serve citizens. Compliance with regulations and policies require agencies to keep records for several years, consuming human resources and increasing costs. DocuNECT government document management improves document retention timelines and provides instant access to any document; including invoices, contracts, personnel records, correspondence, compliance forms, spreadsheets, manuals, and citizen records.

Cost Effective and Compliant

Portford Solutions' DocuNECT is a cost effective document imaging and archiving system, providing solutions for small-to-medium government organizations and departments within the large agencies or the enterprise. DocuNECT provides a safe, secure, and highly portable archive for document storage and management, which is both simple to deploy and easy for users to work with.

Client Services

Portford Solutions provided software implementation, consulting, and support in the following areas:

- Document Capture
- Business Application Integration
- Document and Image Management
- Collaboration and Workflow
- Electronic Forms Design and Management
- Project Management

Refined Methodology

Delivering the highest Return on Investment (ROI) can require more than technical and operational understanding. Portford's document management experience has prompted the creation of the Idea to Implementation (i2i) methodology.

Helping You Serve the Community

National, regional, and municipal government agencies all have intensive document delivery requirements designed to help them enforce, monitor, and administer compliance regulations. Many of these agencies also share a common mission-to serve the public with courtesy and efficiency in a manner that aligns with controlled budgets and remains open to community involvement.

Your Trusted Partner

Portford Solutions provides world class solutions that grow with your organization, and we will become your trusted partner for all your Document Management needs.

